Capt. Louis N. Duffey, of the Alexandria Light Infantry, has just received sixty rifles for the members of that company. He also is now receiving equipment for the company. This company will hold its regular weekly drill at the armory tonight. The drill to have been held last night was postponed on account of Labor Day.

In the circuit court for this city today, Judge S. G. Brent presiding, the suit of Edward Poole against John G. Nash, to recover $5,000 for injuries alleged to have been sustained by being struck by an automobile of the defendant, was postponed until September 16.

NELL BRINKLEY WEDS

New York, Sept. 7.—Miss Nell Brinkley, famous artist, and Bruce McRae, jr., a newspaperman and son of Bruce McRae, well-known actor, were married last Saturday evening at New Rochelle, N. Y., it was learned here today.

WIFE'S BLOOD FAILS TO SAVE "LADY" JAYNE

Bloomsburg, Pa., Sept. 7.—Gere Jayne, aged 46, known to every Princeton man as "Lady" Jayne, the greatest pitcher of his day in collegiate circles, died here yesterday following a transfusion operation, in which his wife gave her blood to save his life.

NEW PAY SCALE

Increased pay for the 75,000 employes of the 48 navy yards throughout the country, including 8,000 in Washington, will be effective on September 16, it was announced at the Navy Department today.

The average increase to be received by the mechanics is about 50 cents a day, whereas the men, when represented before the Naval Wage Board recently, petitioned for increases ranging from $1.50 to $2 a day.

MINES STILL CLOSED BY HARD COAL "INSURGENTS"

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 7.—The anthracite miners' strike remains unbroken today, and all collieries in this district are idle.

The "insurgents" declare they will remain out until the wage scale is revised.

School Permits

Big Rush on Opening Day—Total of 1172 Issued

A total of 1172 permits were issued as follows, Washington school, for boys, 412; Lee school, for girls, 570 and High School for boys and girls, 190.

There was a big rush on the part of children today to obtain permits to reenter the public schools. Those engaged in the task of issuing permits were kept busy from 9 a. m., until 2 p. m.

Permits also will be issued to children tomorrow and Thursday, and on the last named day they will be issued at West End School.

Colored children will be issued permits Friday and Saturday from 9 a. m., to 2 p. m., at Lee school building.

The public schools of the city will resume studies next Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Children obtaining permits go to the principals of the different schools and are assigned to the room in which they will be taught at the coming session. They have their book lists marked and are supposed to be ready to resume studies Monday.

The tax collector's office also was kept busy today, many paying their school tax of fifty cents in order to obtain a permit to have their children enter the public schools. mecomess dom do mod omd omod

THREE KILLED UNDER NIAGARA

Slide of Shale in Cave of Winds Carries Death

FIRST ACCIDENT

Bodies of Victims Recovered by Crew From Maid of the Mist Steamer—Seven Hurt in Collision.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Two women and a man were crushed to death and two men were injured yesterday afternoon when a slide of shale forced out a bridge leading to one of the stairways in the Cave of the Winds under Niagara Falls.

The dead are: A. Hartman, Brooklyn; his wife, Louise Hartman, and Clara M. Faust, Pittsburgh.

A hundred or more tourists who were in the cave at the time had narrow escapes, many being bruised and cut by the falling rock.

The dead and injured were members of a party of tourists just completing a tour of the cave. With a guide leading, the party was in the middle of one of the four bridges in the cave when the slide came, its noise drowned by the roar of the cataract. The guide was not touched by the slide, and his first intimation of it came from the screams of the women in the party.

To recover bodies of the dead it was necessary to take a rowboat from the Maid of the Mist steamer, which had been run up as near as possible to the falls and cave. It was a hazardous venture, but the rowboat crew finally brought the bodies out of the pool and regained the steamer.

The accident is the first of the kind that has occurred in the cave since the first stairway was built in 1883. There have been slides before, but only in the winter or early spring.

Seven persons were injured, none seriously, this afternoon, in a collision of two trains of trolley cars in the Niagara Gorge. Scores of other passengers on the rear trailers of one train saved themselves by jumping when they saw the other train bearing down upon them.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 7.—Clara M. Faust, of Pittsburgh, who was killed today by a fall of rock in the Cave of Winds, under Niagara Falls, and T. W. Lee, who was injured were to have been married within a few weeks, relatives of the dead girl said last night. Miss Faust and Mr. Lee they said, had left Pittsburgh last Saturday to spend the week end and Labor Day at the Falls. Miss Faust was aged 25 years.

HEAD OF 80TH DIVISION

Brig. Gen. Brett Succeeds General Cronkhite as Richmond Reunion Ends

Richmond, Va., Sept. 7.—With the election of Brig. Gen. Lloyd M Brett, retired, as president, succeeding General Cronkhite, the selection of Pittsburgh as the next place of meeting, the adoption of by laws and constitution and a number of other features, including a parade of veterans, addressed by Mayor George Ainslie and Governor Westmoreland Davis at the unveiling of a captured German gun in Capitol Square, the first annual reunion of the Eightieth Division closed a divisions registered. Miles Stahl three day session last night.

More than 2,000 veterans of the man, of Pennsylvania, was elected secretary, and the Rev. Arthur Brown, of New Jersey, was elected chaplain.

Regimental flags carried by the units in France, bedecked with ribbons with which they were decorated overseas by General Pershing, waved in the sunlight, which pushed its way through the dark clouds just as the parade began. Major General Cronkhite, who organized and commanded the division overseas, and other officers, headed the marchers. The regimental flags in the parade are now the properties of the State of Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

ENGLISH AIR THIEF STEALS PAU PLANE

Paris, Sept. 7.—Every aerodrome in Europe is on the lookout for an English aviator who disappeared from the Pau Aerodrome with a Morane "parasol" airplane.

At last reports the "air thief" was reported to be heading toward Spain, the border of which is only an hour as the Morane flies from Pau.

This is the first recorded theft of an airplane in Europe, buc not the first in the world, for ten years ago a daring burglar succeeded in getting away with one of the Wright's experimental planes from Dayton, Ohio. He was captured.

OBREGON MEXICO'S PRESIDENT

Supporters Claim 90 Per Cent of Vote—Conservatives to Protest

Mexico City, Sept. 7.—Leaders of the Obregon party claim that General Obregon has received 90 per cent of the votes cast for election of the Presidency, and that his sweeping victory extended to all parts of the republic.

The Conservative party, sponsoring candidate Dominguez, however, takes the attitude that Obregon's candidacy was unconstitutional, in that he had participated in a revolution against the recognized Government," and that, therefore, his election is illegal They plan to protest to Congress.

The only apparent disturbances reported during the election were in Yucatan, where, according to a dispatch to the Excelsior, Socialists staged a demonstration.

Women's Club

Meeting of General Federation in Washington September 13-16

A meeting of the Board of the General Federation of Women's Clubs will be held September 13, 14, 15, 16, in Washington, D. C. at the Lafayette Hotel. It is a very important meeting for the policy of the new administration will be outlined by the board. This is a representative group of women composed of seven officers, six chairman of national departments, and one director from every state in the union.

The cultural clubs did a mighty work in the war and the government gladly availed itself of that medium to spread its propaganda knowing that "the greatest state in the world is the state of mind."

The clubs of the country were a mighty factor, through its speakers, in moulding public opinion.

The civic clubs were at the front in all the big drives, and in Virginia the president of the Federated Clubh was head of the woman's division of the state for the liberty loan drive.

Since the war Americanization and thrift have been given especial prominence, but this year a new department has been created, that of American citizenship. It deals with the study of the growth and the functions of party government, how the machinery actually works and how it is used sometimes to defeat the purposes of democracy.

Clubs are urged to make use of our office holders, local, county, state and national. The man who cannot appear before his constituents and tell what his office or department is doing, does not deserve re-election. The legislator who cannot outline or explain bills that are before the House and Senate does not represent the people.

Club women are volunteer social workers. In a democracy, official work can not be turned over wholly to officials.

The citizens must keep pace with the official or so become a mere bureaucracy.

Arrangements have been made with some of the most prominent government officials, to address the board (while in session) at Washington. In the constitution of the General Federation it is clearly stated that only "non-political," non-sectarian and non secret clubs are eligible." and though the Federation endorsed no one party, its purpose is through its officers and directors to keep in touch with the great political questions of the day At the present moment women are more largely governed by the issues at stake, than by party lines, and the board is preparing to face its most vital problem American Citizenship.

PICNIC IN 2 PLACES AS CLOUDS WEEP

Luncheon Tendered Second Baptist Sunday School in Westminster Building

GAMES IN AFTERNOON

After Clouds Break Away Crowds Go to Mastu High School—Baseball and Other Sports on Program

The Labor Day picnic of the Sunday schools yesterday was held in several sections as a result of the uncertainty of the weather which kept the crowds guessing all day. However many people braved the weather and assembled at one or another of the several places chosen to put on what parts of the picnic program were possible.

The first and perhaps the most important part of the entire day's program was the dinner to the winning school, the Second Baptist, which was held at te Westminster Building at noon. The feature of the dinner was the "crowning of the first lady" of the day. This event preceded the dinner and was witnessd by a large number of riends from the other schools.

Fully two-hundred and fifty of the members of the Second Baptist Sunday school sat down to the dinner which Miss Cora L. Cochran and her committee had prepared. The guests were loud in their praise of the splendid dinner and the attractive manner in which it was prepared and served.

Plunges To Death

Washington Girl Ends Earthly Troubles at Great Falls

With their only clues a large brown hat, an umbrella, a pocketbook and an address "1336 Eye street," Washington police are today searching for the body and identity of a young girl believed to have committed sbicide at 8.30 last night by jumping over the cliffs of Great Falls into the rapids more than fifty feet below.

The hat—the police's chief hope—is brown and is a so-called "picture hat," with little trimming. It has a low crown and very wide brim, and is made of brown velvet.

The umbrella is one that a girl in very emfortable means would carry It is of plain blue silk, of good make and has a heavy wooden handle of the knob variety, covered with silver polka dots.

The pocketbook is of the semi-bag variety with a silver clasp and contained a small slip from a desk calendar. On the back of this calendar, which was dated September 6, was written the address "1336 Eye street" In the pocketbook also was 75 cents and a return ticket.

According to the story of the park police, some Labor Day picnickers at Great Falls saw the girl sitting on the cliffs on the Maryland side above the rapids. She was gazing down at the water. Judge J. D. Fellin, justice of the peace looking at the girl, called the attention of Policeman R. E. Dickey, who started toward her.

When the policeman was within about 30 feet of the girl she dropped her hat, umbrella and pocketbook and then jumped over the cliffs at the "spout" into the rapids 50 feet below. The water here is about 15 feet deep.

The body today was identified as that of Miss Flossie a native of Nashville, Tenn., a war worker who was employed in Washington.

MINSTRELS SCORE SUCCESS

K. C. S. of This City Perform Saturday And Labor Day at Colonial Beach

Before a naudience that filled to the capacity the auditorium of the Colonial Beach High School, the Alexandria Knights of Columbus Minstrels scored a big hit at that resort last Saturday evening and yesterday afternoon, Labor Day. Former Mayor Rollins, whose term of office expried just last week, and many of the other municipal officials were in attendance, and all expressed much pleasure over the performance which was given.

The scenery which had been employed when the minstrels gave their initial performance had been transported to Colonial Beach, and it served as a fitting and very impressive back ground for the auditorium of one of the finest educational buildings in Westmoreland county. In addition to the minstrels and scenery, the orchestra of the Knights of Columbus was greatly enjoyed, and during the stay of the troupe, the orchestra gave a concert in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Rollins who, with other ladies of Colonial Beach, had accorded so many courtesies and accomodations to the visiting troupe

The local troupe is scheduled to give a performance at Manassas in the near future.

FOCH TELLS SECRET OF HUNS MARNE LOSS

Paris, Sept. 7.—Marshal Foch generalissimo of the allied forces, last night for the first time explained the first German defeat on the Marne. He commanded the center of the French army in that engagement.

"The German defeat on the Marne" he said, "was unquestionably due to the collapse of the German general staff plan, due to the German generals each of whom was eager to win the war on his own account. The advance of Von Kluck was the most stupifying in history, but, obsessed by the idea of reaching Paris he forgot to protect his flank against the attack by Gen. Gallieni, meanwhile the German general headquarters were unable to save the situation because it remained at Luxemburg far from the scene of the fighting."

NAVAL TORPEDO STATION RECREATION LEAGUE

On Friday night, September 10, the Naval Torpedo Station Recreation League will give an entertainment at Elks Hall, presenting Louise Alice Williams, the distinguished Southern reconteur.

Miss Williams is noted throughout the United States for her character impersonations of the old type southern darky. This type of darky is fast dying out and it will not be many years before it will be impossible for a character study of this nature to be made.

Miss Williams, who was born and bred in Georgia, has had splendid chances to study the character and ways of this class of darky and faithfully renders stories and songs in the negro dialect in a way which has endeared her to all who have heard her as well as having been highly complimented on her recitals at the White House during President Taft's administration and twice during the present administration.

An evening of enjoyment is assured to all who attend.

FIVE INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

MACHINES WRECKED

Five persons were injured and two machines wrecked about seven o'clock last night on the Camp Humphreys road six miles south of Alexandria, just below Gum Springs.

Four of the injured were in a car driven by Miss Virginia Lloyd, of Richmond, and one in a car belonging to Thomas R. Dunn, 620 M street, southwest Washington.

The parties in the Lloyd car were rushed to the Alexandria Hospital and treated by Dr. H. A. Latane and they follow; Mrs. S. W. Loyd, Richmond, bruised and suffering from shock; Miss Virginia Lloyd, sprained ankle; Mrs. J. A. Lanier, Petersburg, broken shoulder and Robert Lloyd, Richmond, face cut and bruised.

There were three men, it is stated in the car of Thos. R. Dunn, of Washington, and Mr. Dunn was cut and bruised about the face. The other occupants escaped with minor injuries.

The Lloyd car was proceeding to Richmond and the car belonging to Mr. Dunn, which, however, was not driven by Mr. Dunn, was proceeding northward, the party being en route to Washington.

The damaged car of the Lloyds was later towed to Alexandria and placed in Dunnan's garage.

At the hospital today it was stated that the injured parties are rapidly recovering and expect to leave for their homes tomorrow.

The entire front of the Lloyd car was smashed in and the steering wheel broken. The Lloyd car is a six cylinder five passenger Olds.

William R. Hill, of Washington, was in charge of the car, which led the Lloyd car, accompanied the injured to this city.

Dempsey Winner

World's Champion Defeats Miske in Third Round

Benton Harbor, Mich. Sept. 7—Jack Dempsey retains the title as heavyweight champion of the world. Defeating Billy Miske, of St. Paul, by a clean knockout in the third round here yesterday before a crowd of 20,000 fight fans, he left no doubt that he is still the master of his class in America. A vicious left uppercut to the jaw turned the trick. The St. Paul challenger was hearing the canaries sing for a considerable period after the refree had counted him out and proclaimed Jack the winner. Twice before in the same round Miske had gone down before the champion's savage onslaught, and in the second he had taken the count of five.

The challenger was completely outclassed from the end of the first round. It was his fourth meeting with Dempsey and the poorest showing he had ever made in his efforts to win the title. He had entered the ring full of confidence and smiling. He was an unconscious wreck seven and a half minutes later.

The quickness of his defeat was a distinct surprise to the crowd at large and a bitter disappointment to the thousands of citizens of St. Paul who had journeyed down to see their fellowtowneman perform.

There were the usual rumors of a frame-up preceding the mill, but not the slightest evidence as the fight proceeded that there was any basis for such a suggestion. Miske fought all the way, several times taking the offensive. But his game was hopeless. Clever as he had proved himself to be when sparring at his training quarters, he was helpless in his efforts to land a winning blow, and after the first round, equally without success in dodging the champion's attack.

ESSENTIALS FOR A HAPPY MARRIAGE

What are the traits and achievements which, brought into conjunction, are most likely to form the ideal marriage? Nay, more—what are the ingredients absolutely necessary to the ideal marriage? Would you learn them? consult the findings of the thirty-one men and women students constituting Dr. Edwin Clark's class in sociology at the Ohio State University, who have been investigating these matters and obligingly offer the results of their researches that such of mankind as can afford to enter into the conjugal state may not suffer for want of guidance in selecting his potential mate and women need no longer risk misfortune in making their choice. According to the rating of these earnest students, wealth and fame are decidedly non-essentials for a happy union, nor are physical attractions, though not to be despised, accounted of either men or women of paramount importance.

On the list it appears that absolute essentials are: the parties embarking together on the perilous voyage shall be of the same race; sound family stock; good health, with the following mental traits: affection; intelligence; desire for and love of children and comradeship. Among the qualifications noted as merely highly valuable, without being essential, are: interesting personality; strength of will; interest in partner's business; domesticity; refinement of manner; taste in dress; dignity; optimism; humor; harmony of tastes, and executive ability. On the question of morality the women show themselves, from the standpoint of a mere man, excessively greedy, demanding: sincerity; honesty; fair mindedness; truthfulness, and wholesomeness in thought and action, not to speak of religious ideals; industry; good temper; manly strength; self-control; sympathy; economy, cheerfulness; frankness and loyalty—traits also indicated by the masculine judges as being not undesirable in a wife.

Most important of all, however, these solons of Ohio declare, is that the husband should be a good provider and the wife a woman capable of self-support, items which certainly represent the cream of their findings. For the rest, it would, perhaps, be entertaining to witness the devastation and equal company of men and women look experienced in the state so subtly speculated upon by the youngsters would work in these lists. We fancy we should see startling transpositions with such qualities as good temper, humor, and one not mentioned by the students—namely, tolerance—promoted to the head of the list, the others, the vast bulk of the requirements assembled by these young people in the high pride of their youth, waived in favor of them. Still more interesting, however, would it be to follow the thirty-one wiseacres from the college gate and watch them gradually, with the acquisition of experience, come around to the point of view which allows that a pretty happy sort of marital career can be patched up between two perfectly average human beings, after all.—Richmond Journal.

ECHO OF FIREMEN'S CONVENTION

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 4th, 1920.
Editor "The Alexandria Gazette;"

I, for one of those identified with the Virginia fire service, am way back home, with a pleasant memory of our gathering in your "lovely burg," which you folks pride in terming "the Old Berg."

Your people took onto us heartily and saw that we had the "frolic" of our lives, and while we took advantage of your hospitality to the full we held a most satisfactory meeting—better than any of recent years, thanks to Chief Ogden and others—not forgetting John Trimyer, who is a real boy when he wants to be.

We hope to come again—soon.

Sincerely yours,
L. E. LOOKABILL,
Secretary Va. State Firemen's Assn.

WHEN IS "BRIDE 13" COMING?

MOTORS AS RIVALS OF THE RAILWAYS

Although transportation by motor trucks has developed rapidly of late and regular service has been established between the larger cities, the possibilities of further expansion are as yet hardly realized by the public. Even the existing facilities have met with some hostility because of the heavy wear and tear on the roads. But this is a difficulty which should not prove insuperable. It has not deterred the Automobile Association of Great Britain from planning to link some five hundred towns and cities by a system which will give cheap and rapid service, not only in the centres of population, but in the outlying districts.

Ease of collection and delivery is one important feature in this scheme. Application to the nearest agent will ensure immediate attention. Here, of course, the motor trucks have an advantage over the railways. That they will relegate the railways to a position of secondary importance, as the promoters of this system anticipate, is unlikely. But they will assuredly supplement the railways effectively, and also—what is of great importance at the present time—make a strike of railway workers less disastrous to the Nation.

Motor truck competition is expected also to lessen the cost of living. To what extent it will do this remains to be seen. But it ought to help materially in the distribution of farm produce. Present methods, as Americans know only too well, have failed in this respect.

HOW THE WEATHER REPORT IS MADE

Few persons realize the science displayed in the making out of the weather report. The prophet himself must be a man of many qualifications. He must know how to read the automatic barometers. He must be an able mathematician in order to figure out his computations. He must be a draftsman so that he can outline the territorial map with its network of lines and circles which show high and low pressure, and all the signs of the time.

First the sky is studied by the naked eye, with notations made on its clearness or cloudiness, type of clouds and direction from which they float. Later the electrical barometers are read. The highest and lowest temperatures since the preceding readings are taken by maximum and minimum thermometers exposed in shuttered shelters.

To measure wind velocity an instrument called the anemometer is used. This self-registers so as to make a continuous automatic record of the wind, showing the rate and time of occurrence of all winds.

A thermograph writes the temperature unceasingly on clock time. Perhaps the most important piece of scientific machinery in the outfit is the meteorograph. Three things are recorded on this scientific invention, the action of the wind, rain and sunshine. Numerous instruments are needed to test the moisture and the rainfall. There is the rain-weighing gauge which weighs snow also. Even the moisture is measured by the hydrograph, and for fear the weatherman might miss some tiny ray a sunshine recorder has been devised.

A net work of telegraph circuits connects the various weather bureaus and distributing stations. Within two hours after the observations are taken the forecasts are telegraphed from the forecast centers. After the map has been traced it is stereotyped, printed and distributed.

Weather forecasts reach nearly 90,000 addresses every day by mail and are available to more than 5,500,000 telephone subscribers.—In Motor for September.

GERMANS DESTROY MUNITIONS

Berlin, Sept. 7.—A train loaded with fool and munitions for the interallied occupation troops in Upper Silesia, was stopped today at Arfut by railroad workers.

The railroad workers uncoupled the munition car, which they blew up. They permitted the remainder of the train to proceed. The Minister of Frankfort discharged the guilty persons.

SHOES AND EDUCATION

One of the new requirements for public school entrance is shoes. A very small boy presented himself this morning for assignment to a room, with his permit pinned to the blouse of his new suit, but horrors, he was barefooted, and consequently was turned away. Shades of Washington, Jefferson and Marshall shoes are now essential to an education!

CREAM OF THE CURRENT POETRY

A Vacation Valedictory

Adieu to all the crystal creeks
In which I cast a hook,
And all the winding woodland paths—
I know them like a book;
The hollow tree that housed the owl,
The moss-brocaded rocks,
Where in the moonlight once I saw
The frolics of a fox.

Goodbye, my cosy cabin camp,
Log walled and roofed with sod,
Set in its little garden wild
Of fern and goldenrod.
No bacon will be half so good,
No coffee half so fine,
As when I breakfasted at dawn
Beneath the blasted pine.

Farewell, my Adirondack camp,
Though still your charms entice,
I leave you to the squirrel folk,
The crickets and the mice.
But in the city I shall hear
The voices of the streams
That lace the misty mountain peaks,
Still calling in my dreams.

SUB'S WRECK LAID TO DEFECTIVE VALVE

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 7.—A naval board inquiry today endeavored to determine causes and responsibility for sinking of the submarine S-5 in which the crew was imprisoned for forty hours. Members of the crew declared the submersible was disabled when a defective valve failed to close.

The rescued crew requested Secretary of Navy Daniels to reassign them to the S-5 when the submersible has undergone repairs. Three of the men, suffering from effects of chlorine gas fumes were reported improving at a local hospital.

BROOKLYN STRIKING CARMEN IN RIOT

New York, Sept. 7.—Brooklyn's Labor Day parade wound up this afternoon with a riot, during which several hundred Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company strikers, most of them wearing army and navy uniforms they had preserved from war service, fought a detail of police reserves in Prospect Park Plaza and finally were routed and dispersed by a platoon of mounted men who suddenly came upon the scene.

Revolver shots were exchanged freely an dnightsticks fought fists and cobblestones. Chief Inspector Laney's automobile was riddled with bullets and dented with stones. Its occupants narrowly escaped.

TO FIGHT "DEMON RUM"

Congress Against Alcoholism To Meet In Washington

Washington, Sept. 7.—It is announced that the Fifteenth International Congress Against Alcoholism will convene in Washington September 21 to 26, with delegates of world wide reputation in various fields of industry in attendance and with plans ready for extending the battle against the "demon rum" to other lands.

Germany will send the first two professors from that country to enter the United States since the war—Prof. G. Aschaffenburg, of Cologne, and Prof. J. Gonser, of Berlin. Among other scientists who will attend will be Dr. C. W. Saleeby, London; M. J. Metell, a noted army surgeon, of Paris; Dr. H. Hercod, of Lausanne; Harriet Crommelin, of Zeist, Holland and Dr. S. Daszynska Golinska, of Warsaw, a woman professor of political economy and social science.

Cooperation Between Employer and Employees Is Necessary If Both Would Be Truly Successful!

Now is the time for the forward look, for the commencement of a movement that will work out for a closer relationship between the man who has work to offer and the man who wishes the work. The closer that this relationship is between them and the more that each endeavors to co-operate with the other, placing his dependence upon the success of both. Employers and workers are engaged in common cause. Each should have the ambition of reaching the highest pinnacle of success and should appreciate their dependence upon the other. The closer they work together, that much easier will they reach the goal toward which they are striving.

The Man Who Offers Employment and Those Who Accept Same Have A Responsibility Towards Each Other and Which They Must Assume

It's Team Work That Counts

Business could not exist without labor. Labor could not exist without business. One is dependant upon the other. The interests of all depend that business and labor should co-operate in order to be successful.

When employment is offered, persons accepting same have a right to consider that certain considerations are their due. The employer, actually and tentatively agrees to certain things and which must be carried out. A successful business man, in any line, will not tender employment unless he knows that the conditions offered will be met. The responsibilities of the employer are great and unless he recognizes them and endeavors to fulfill them in every detail, it is impossible for him to be successful from the fact that he cannot hire or retain help as soon as it is known that he is irresponsible and indifferent to the just claims his employees may have upon him.

Give Consideration to Matter

The sincere man who will consider the points brought out in this announcement can not help but admit the need of co-operation that exists today between all classes and the beneficial results when it is recognized.

The Claims of the Employees Are Not Any Greater Than That of the Man Who Furnishes Employment. It Is As Binding and Should Be Recognized As Such By Every Wage Earner

A great deal of the misunderstandings that arise between employers and workers is due to the failure of each to recognize the rights of the other. While a portion of the difficulties that come up can be traced to unfairness of the employers, there can be no question but what a great deal of the trouble is traceable directly to employees acting unfairly towards those by whom they are employed. Perhaps not in the strict sense of right and wrong. But more particularly as to their failure in co-operating and in working for the interest of those by whom they are employed. Men who work for a wage are responsible to a great extent for the success and growth of the business. They should realize that carelessness, lack of interest, indifference as to quality and quantity of the work performed lessens the profits of the business, increases the cost of operation and prevents its expansion. All of which directly works against the interests of the men who are employed and thus creates conditions that tend to promote unrest and dissatisfaction against the employer who is in no way responsible. If men will take an interest in their work, endeavor to make a quality production, in as large a measure as possible, they will usually find that they will receive a wage satisfactory and under working conditions that will also be all that they can desire. The restlessness of men in these days, due to reports of big wages in other places is responsible for a spirit of unrest. They hear of how much money can be made in other places but which if traced down would prove to be a myth or that working conditions are so poor and requirements are so great that the hardships in connection with the work in other places more than counteracts the larger wage. The man who has a good job, is steady, reliable and has the interest of his employers at heart, will not need to complain. His work will be appreciated, he will be advanced and his wage will always be in a just proportion to that service which he renders his employer. Co-operation is essential on the part of both. The more that it is known and recognized, the greater will be the success of those who are employing men as well as will the success be greater of those who are employed.

It is perfectly right and just for every man to wish to make his labors produce for him as large a wage as possible. A man will never get along who becomes discontented and starts running about, working only a few days on a job and then leaving for some other place where he imagines he is going to better himself. It is the man who sticks to his job, and who works at all time to make his work productive, who succeeds. Whether you are employer or employee, consider carefully this relationship that must exist between men if they would be successful.

Don't Quit Your Job!

Don't let outside influences cause you to quit your job. If there is dissatisfaction regarding working conditions, your wage scale or for many other cause, see your employer, talk it over with him. You'll find him ready to help you in every way. He is interested in you and will gladly do all he justly can to promote your comfort and interests in every way and to make you contented.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Williamsburg—Bathers at Bigler's again encountered the big shark that has been lurking in waters of the York river off that place.

Bristol—Labor day in Bristol was featured by a Shriner celebration, in which more than 100 Shriners from Roanoke, Lynchburg, and other points in southwest Virginia, and the famous Kazim Band, of Roanoke, participated. Last night a banquet was tendered the visiting Shriners.

Lynchburg, Virginia.—W. S. Moore has been arrested here at the instance of a representative of the State corporation commission on the charge of selling an oil stock without sanction of that commission. Moore has been bailed.

Richmond—John Wanamker, who is making a cruise of Virginia waters, arrived here yesterday morning aboard his yacht Noma. He spent most of the day here and probably will visit other Virginia cities before returning to Philadelphia and New York.

Richmond—Fire yesterday practically destroyed the town of Chincoteague and made 2,500 persons homeless. Elmer Watson, a ship worker, suffered a fracture of the skull by falling from the roof of his home and is in a critcal condition. No estimate of the loss has been ascertained here.

Danville—B. Bratton, secret service agent, yesterday seized a complete counterfeiting outfit in a room said to have been rented recently by Frederick Holman, a negro from Norfolk, who was held without bail for the Federal grand jury. The agent intimated data collected in the room would lead to further arrests.

Warrenton—Rev. Mr. Voght has taken charge of the Episcopal Churches at Casanova and Remington, this county, and will make his home at Remington.

Hampton—George F. Rinkliff of Springfield, Ohio, who was recently made city manager for Hampton, assumed his duties September 1.

Richmond—Colonel Albert B. Dockery has been chosen commandant of the Virginia Military Institute by the board of visitors of V. M. I., held at Richmond Hotel. He was recently commissioned as colonel of engineers and professor of military science and tactics at the institute. Colonel Dockery is a major of cavalry of the United States Army, and was formerly stationed at Fort Ogletohrpe.

Charlottesville—At a joint meeting of the Common Council and Board of Aldermen Walter Washabaugh, of this city, was elected city manager, to succeed Shelton S. Fife. There was no election of city attorney, Major John S. Graves and William O. Fife each receiving six votes.

Warrenton—Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax Harrison, of Belvoir, Va., have announced the engagement of their daughter Miss Ursula Harrison, to Charles Julian Baird. The wedding will take place in October.

Winchester—One of the wooden legs of R. D. Frazier, a world war veteran of Charlottesville, Va., was broken last night when an automobile in which he was riding with E. C. Morris, of Warrenton, Va., struck a cow on the Valley turnpike, near Mt. Jackson, Va., and turned over.

Harrisonburg—No woman has as yet registered as a voter in Harrisonburg or Rockingham County, though a few who desired to qualify were turned away early in the week.

Luray—Hastening from the fastnesses of the Blue Ridge Mountains, this county, Herbert Breeden, a mountaineer, reached the bedside of his sister in the University Hospital, Charlottesville, just in time to submit to blood transfusion which makes her recovery probable. Breeden refused an anesthetic and calmly watched the physicians make the incision in his flesh.

Fredericksburg—On a novel honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Shore, of Connecticut, landed their plane on a field near this city late yesterday evening and pitched camp for the night. They left early yesterday morning on their air voyage to Florida, where they will spend the winter. Shore was an aviator in the war.

SPORTS

Three more victories increased the fast-going Dreadnaught's string to thirty-five out of thirty-six games played when on Sunday they defeated the Brentwood, Maryland, club, 11-0, and yesterday afternoon handed the [illegible] Winston A. C. of Washington a double mauling to the tune of 10-1 and 9-0, the former limited to seven innings, and three games played on the [illegible] School ground [illegible] the latter-evening weather on both days, large crowds attended the contests. The Winston boys were substituted in lieu of the Remington Cigarette Orange pick ed nine, who on account of the heavy rains in that section yesterday morning did not start for this city, thinking that bad weather experienced there were general throughout the state, and being unable to get their full team together when telegraphed by the local management yesterday morning.

Singleton and Quayle twirled against the Brentwoods, only thirty-one men facing this pair of crack twirlers, "Sing" allowing three hits in five innings while only one man reached first on Jimmy in the remaining four frames, by virtue of a walk. In the meantime their team mates were lacing the visiting pitchers for fourteen safe smacks, which five walks and three hit batsmen account ed for eleven markers. Ludlow leading the hitters with four safe blows.

The first game Labor Day was easy sailing for the locals, a total of eighteen hits in seven innings, with six walks two hit batsmen, and three errors resulting in sixteen runs, while Lefty White was twirling invincible ball for the Dreadnaughts. Chief Frazier with four bingles and Ludlow with three hits lead the batters, every man on the team hitting safely at least once, Pinch-hitter Rosy Hayden coming thru with a timely blow in the sixth just to show the fans what we have in reserve for our opponents.

Jimmy Quayle pitched no-hit ball until the seventh frame in the nightcap, being reached for six hits in the last three innings, but easily being master of the losers at all stages, being assisted by some wonderful fielding on the part of his clubmen, individual praise being necessary to give the full events of the game, but in short the Dreadnaughts played first-class ball throughout the game.

U. S. Savage, who has been catching first class ball around Alexandria since 1914 always being willing to assist the locals clubs when called upon and incidentally always putting up a bang-up game, caught perhaps his last game here yesterday as he is leaving the end of the week for Cleveland, O. His numerous friends in Alexandria will be extremely sorry to see him depart, and he will carry with him the best wishes of all he has come in contact with. He held up Lefty White yesterday in the Dreadnaught-Winston game in great style, driving in two runs with a timely bingle to center in his first time at bat and putting plenty of pep into the game by his encouraging remarks during the pastime. Savage was good before his two years with the A. E. F. forces but yesterday's exhibition was classier than ever. It is hoped that he will be with us again.

NEWSPAPER PLAY PLEASES

A newspaperman's job may look easy and in some respects perhaps it is easy. But not always. This fact is demonstrated in Marshal Neilan's great newspaper play, "Go And Get It," which was shown at the Richmond Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening and which is being repeated today.

A series of crooked plays on the part of a managing editor, a couple of mysterious murders and the burden of proving beyond a shadow of a doubt, the responsibility for the crookedness and the murders, thrown onto the shoulders of two newspaper reporters, is the story that is graphically told and the unraveling of the mysteries is a part of the attention compelling theme of this play, which is classed as one of the greatest Neilan has ever produced. An all star cast is another attraction.

son, with her retinue marched down the isle amid "oh's" and "ah's" and generous applause. Mr. Ebhardt, retiring president of the city Sunday school union crowned the first lady and the compliments of the Ladies' Auxiliary were presented by Miss Barbara Caton in the form of a beautiful bouquet of American roses. Miss Elise Marvel Wallace presented the compliments of the Y. M. C. A., which proved to be a large box of candy.

Mr. Geo. K. Bender, superintendent of the Second Baptist Sunday school presented the first lady with a handsome Nelson American revised edition of the Holy Bible. Miss Simpson accepted with easy grace her many presents and won the hearts of all present by her modest manner.

After the luncheon it was announced that the armory had been kindly placed at the disposal of the picnicers and many went there to enjoy the games that should have been staged out of doors. However as the sky brightened some the crowd decided that it would take a chance on the weather man and went to the Geo. Mason high school, the original site of the picnic.

A prettier spot could not have been chosen for the picnic and a good crowd went out to see just what might have been had the weather been good. Many cars from the different schools of the city were out and some real fun was enjoyed in the form of a base ball game played by two teams anxious to get a little holiday sport.

A team representing the Second Baptist school defeated a picked team from Braddock. The game was featured by timely hitting by Wells, Gaede, Grimm and Butler of the winners, which happened to be the team representing the winning Sunday school. A spectacular catch by Grimm, playing center field drew generous appreciation from the enthusiastic crowd on the side lines. The final score was 12-10 and the batteries: Grimm and Butler, and Reynolds and Petrie.

During the base ball game the youngsters were entertained with athletics and games and all got into the game and really finished the day unmindful of the fact that only a few hours before they had looked anxiously at the gathering clouds and said things about the weather man that would dare to spoil a holiday picnic for a perfectly lovely bunch of boys and girls.

TRAIN WRECK PLOT LAID TO COMMUNISTS

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 7.—Special protection for the alleged communists held in connection with the plot to wreck the Illinois Central "Diamond Special" here was ordered today, following the release of thousands of Communist leaflets throughout the residence district, urging workmen to "arise and crush the power of the capitalists."

Feeling against the held men is high and attempts at violence are feared.

42 DEPUTY SHERIFFS DISMISSED BY COURT

Williamson, W. Va., Sept. 7.—Forty-two deputy sheriffs who have been on duty in Mingo County since the coal strike was called several months ago, were dismissed today by Judge James Damron, and twenty Williamson business and professional men appointed in their places. Judge Damron also revoked the licenses of more than seventy citizens who had been permitted to carry firearms.

DRIVES PETER NASH WHILE 40,000 WATCH HIM

Minneapolis, Sept. 7.—Governor James M. Cox forgo this presidential campaign long enough yesterday afternoon to indulge in the "sport of kings" at the Minnesota State Fair. Word of the Governor's love of good horse flesh had preceded him to Minnesota. When he had concluded his speech before a crowd of 40,000 persons which packed the stands and nearby standing room, President W. B. F. Murphy of the Fair Association, announced a request in behalf of the horsemen of the Northwest that the Democratic candidate drive Peter Nash, champion pacer of this section of the country, around the mile track.

Governor Cox accepted with genuine pleasure. He had seen the magnificent nine year old chestnut stallion owned by John Ryan Democratic leader of Minneapolis establish his record of 2:01 1-2 at Columbus three years ago.

His face wreathed in smiles as the vast throng cheered wildly, the Governor pulled his black slouch hat down over his ears, grasped the rein, climbed into the sulky and was off. He took it slow on the first quarter and let the pacer out only slightly on the back stretch but on the streets he gave Peter Nash his head, and te famous side wheeler flashed past the stands at a clip which left no doubt of his chances of winning the 2:00 pace Wednesday.

IRISH GUARDS REMOVED FROM LONDON

London, Sept. 7.—The War Office, whether apprehending trouble in that quarter or not in view of the imminent death of Lord Mayor MacSwiney—has suddenly removed the Irsh guards from duty in London, sending them to the country. The Irish Guards are the solitary Irish regiment now serving in these islands, all others having been sent to India, Egypt and other remote regions.

Owing to the failure of native recruiting for both the Irish and Welsh guards since the armistice it was proposed to abolish them but they have been kept up to some extent by transferring men from other regiments, not necessarily Irish or Welsh.

10,145,521 AMERICANS RESIDE IN THREE CITIES

Washington, Sept. 7.—About one-tenth of the people of the United States live in the cities of New York Chicago and Philadelphia, while more than one quarter live in sixty-seven cities having a population of 100,000 or more, final statistics of the fourteenth census are expected to show.

The three cities with populations of 1,000,000 or more——New York, Chicago and Philadelphia—have a combined population of 10,145,521, showing an increase of 1,644,347, or about 19.5 per cent, in the ten years since 1910.

Cities having 500,000 to 1,000,000 increased from five in 1910 to nine this year. Detroit, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Buffalo having advanced into this class.

There was a net increase of two in the cities of the 250,000 to 500,000 class, a total of thirteen, although six advanced into this classification. They are Kansas City, Mo.; Seattle, Indianapolis, Rochester, Portland, Oregon, and Denver.

There are forty-two cities of from 100,0000 to 250,000 this year, a net increase of eleven, although seventeen have shown increases bringing them into this class.

DENVER CAR CRASH KILLS 10; 70 HURT

Denver, Colo., Sept. 7.—Ten persons were killed and seventy injured when two interurban cars collided head on on a curve just outside of Globeville, a suburb of Denver, yesterday afternoon. Last night all but one of the dead had been identified.

A special car on a train carrying holiday pleasure seekers to Eldorado Springs, a resort, collided with a regular car returning from Boulder to Denver on the Denver and Interurban Railway.

According to officials at the Globeville station, the conductor of the outbound car failed to obtain orders to wait at Globeville for the incoming car. The incoming car was two minutes behind schedule and was running at high speed. The cars plowed into each other fifteen feet.

Most of the casualties occurred on the inbound car, but few on either car escaped injury.

STILL FOUND ON FARM OF SHEPPARD, DRY LAW AUTHOR

Mount Pleasant, Texas, Sept. 7.—An illicit still of 180 gallons daily capacity was found upon the farm of United States Senator Morris Sheppard, author of the national prohibition amendment, during a raid by Federal agents. Four hundred gallons of mash, whisky and seven barrels of sour mash were captured [illegible]

The proprietor of the still escaped The raid was made by C. G. Gray, United States revenue enforcement officer, and C. Gaddis, constable. The outfit was brought to Mount Pleasant.

FAIRMONT INQUIRY POINTS TO OVERLOOK OF SIGNALS

Fairmont, W. Va., Sept. 7.—The coroner's jury which met today to investigate into the cause of the deaths of the five persons who lost their lives in the street car accident at Baxter, on the Monongahela Valley Traction Company's line Sunday, viewed the bodies at the morgue. Adjournment was taken until September 14, when the formal investigation will be made, after which a decision will be reached as to the responsibility for the wreck.

The officials of the traction company are continuing their investigation and will be ready to report to the Coroner and his jury next Tuesday. From what evidence has been secured it goes to show that the signals had been overlooked by the crews of the two passenger cars in regard to the electric freight train which followed the outbound car from Fairmont.

The injured at the local hospitals are doing well and it is believed that all will recover.

WEDDING PLANS SLIP COG

Divorced Wife Has X-Ray Expert Arrested for Abandonment

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Owen T. Johnson, an ex-ray expert was to have married Miss Rose Vaughn yesterday, but Johnson's divorced wife stepped in and stopped the proceedings. As a result Johnson occupies a cell at the Warren avenue police station, charged with wife and child abandonment. The wedding would have taken place as scheduled, but some one mailed the divorced wife, Mrs. Josephine Johnson, Indianapolis, an invitation to the wedding. As Johnson was rehearsing the wedding at the church his divorced wife, accompanied by a policeman, appeared.

"I think he should be forced to support me and our son before he takes a new wife," said Mrs. Johnson. "He deserted me 7 years ago. "He deserted me seven years ago. Last October I got a divorce but no alimony."

Lloyd George Wears Armor Suit; Troops Guard Him on Way [illegible]

Paris, Sept. 7.—An army of international secret police is taking the most extraordinary precautions to prevent attacks on Premier Lloyd George as he is en route from Lucerne through France to a port from which he will said to England.

Two pilot trains are preceeding the special train on which the premier is riding. A large guard of soldiers and police is stationed at every stop. A special train carrying fifty armed guards follows the premier's special.

The premier is wearing a suit of mail similar to the one worn by Venizelos, the Greek premier, when he was shot at the Gare de Lyon, Paris.

Owing to the fears that the premier will be attacked it is doubtful if his projected meeting with Premier Millerand in Paris will be held.

London, Sept. 7.—Heavily guarded, Premier Lloyd George left Lucerne for London last night, says a Geneva dispatch to the London Daily Express. The premier climbed the Alps at Kermatt this morning.

6,778 VIRGINIA CASUALTIES IN WAR

That 4,452 men were wounded and 1,635 killed in the world war from Virginia is shown by the report of the adjutant-general of the army in the list of casualties from Virginia issued yesterday. Of the men killed, seventy-one were officers and 1,564 were enlisted men, and of the wounded, 196 were officers and 4,256 were enlisted men.

Twenty-seven officers and 537 men were killed in action, and thirteen officers and 278 men died from wounds. Only twenty officers and 536 men lost their lives from disease. Accidents caused the death of seven officers and twenty-two men. Three officers and fifty-seven men met their death in an undetermined manner. Only one Virginian died as a prisoner. Of the number taken prisoners were three officers and forty enlisted men. Three officers and forty-nine men were repatriated.

Ninety-five officers and 1,980 men were wounded slightly. Seventy-one officers and 1,484 men were severely wounded.

STUNTS OF LOCKLEAR ALSO PROVE FATAL FOR TINNEY

Detroit, Sept. 7.—Myron L. Tinney, former army aviator, fell 50[illegible] feet to his death late yesterday while performing aerial acrobatics at the State fair grounds. Tinney's "stunts" were similar to those performed by Ormer Locklear, who was killed several weeks ago [illegible]

In an attempt to catch a rope ladder do which he was to climb from one plane to another flying above him, he missed his hold and plunged from the top of his machine. A crowd estimated at nearly 200,000 witnessed the accident. Tinney was in the flying service at a Texas training field when the war ended.

RICHMOND THEATRE

One of the best pictures shown for some time was the verdict of all who witnessed Marshall Neilan's production of "Go and Get It" at the Richmond last night and yesterday's matinee.

"Go And Get It," is a newspaper story in which an energetic team of reporters unearth a mystery of startling nature. Back of the entire mystery plot is the pertinent question of the day. Is the substitution of new human organs practicable so far as the prolongation of life is concerned?

The audience will be mystified and thrilled by the unusual events that me the path of the reporter who is told to "Go And Get It."

The entire plot of "Go And Get It" is based on this scientific phenomen although the story is a most truthful picture of a newspaper reporter's work.

The title is taken from a quartet of words that strike home in heart of every newspaper man—"Go And Get It." It will be shown again tonight.

WHERE IS "BRIDE 13?"

NINE CHARRED BODIES FOUND IN OREGON HOTEL

Klamath Falls, Ore., Sept. 7.—Nine charred bodies had been recovered at noon today from the ruins of a fire which destroyed Houston Hotel and Opera House and burned two blocks of dwellings and business houses. Five bodies have been identified.

Many persons were burned or injured in escaping from the burning hotel. All the dead were believed to be from Oregon.

Mrs. Mary Campora, to whom a baby was born last Friday, threw the infant from a third story window into the arms of spectators, then jumped. The infant was uninjured, but Mrs. Campora suffered serious hurts.

HOME WRECKED BY BOMBS

Attack on Cripple Believed to be Sequel to Tragedy of Last May

Manassas, Va., Sept. 7.—An unsuccessful attempt was made upon the life of Karl J. Austin at his home on Zebeedee street here at 12:20 this morning when a charge of dynamite was exploded under a window of a room occupied by Austin, his wife and small child. The explosion tore a large hole in the ground, shattering a section of the foundation of the building, tore plastering loose and broke several windows. In a house directly across the street 38 window panes were broken and a door was blown open.

Mrs. Margaret Glazier, grandmother of Austin, and his step-mother occupied rooms on the second floor on the side nearest the explosion. None of the occupants, however, was injured, Mrs. Austin was covered with flying glass and plaster. She and her husband had been awakened about 11 o'clock by the barking of the dog. A later hour, when the dog again aroused the household, Austin was getting out of bed to go to the dog when a sheet of flame flared up before the window, followed immediately by a violent explosion and the rocking of the building.

It is thought that the attempt upon Austin's life as a sequel to a shooting affray on the streets here last May when Austin, a crippled insurance agent, shot and killed J. H. D. Davis, who, he said, had alienated his wife's affections, causing a separation. After the shooting a reconciliation was effected between Austin and his wife, while Austin was still in jail. At his preliminary hearing Austin was bound over to the circuit court and at the June term of that court Judge Samuel G. Brent set the date of trial of Austin at the October term. He was released on $10,000 bond.

ROYAL ELECTRIC CLEANER
Cleans by Air—Alone!

The Dirt You Cannot See
NO true housekeeper is satisfied with mere surface cleanliness. The family's health and her own peace of mind demands the complete removal of hidden dirt with its lurking germs as well as that which can readily be seen on the surface.
Dirt cannot resist the powerful, purifying air stream of the Royal. It gets all the dirt on the rug, deep down in the rug and even underneath.
Draperies, furniture, walls, ceilings, mouldings and "out-of-the-way" corners and crannies all quickly and easily yield their toll of dirt and dust to the Royal, which cleans by air—alone!
